MEMORANDUM TO: The Director

VIA: The Deputy Director

1. This memorandum is for information only.
2. Carroll Kilpatrick, WASHINGTON POST, telephoned to ask what changes you had made in the CIA and what is the significance of the changes. I told him that the changes in the organization have not been completed so it is too early to discuss them and indicate their significance.
3. He said some changes have been published, and I said yes, the Director is new; the Deputy Director is new; Bob Amory (whom he knows) has left but no successor has been designated; Dick Bissell (whom he knows) has left and Dick Helms has been named to his position; and it has been published that a new Deputy for Research, a scientist, Dr. Herbert Scoville, has been named to that newly created position.
4. Kilpatrick said he might do a little piece on CIA, pinning it on the Scoville angle, and he will call again in case I don't call him, when we might discuss the changes and their meaning.

*Better alert Scoville along
